

eBook Collection

are part of Karger's Online Collections

eBook Collection

The eBook Collection Program offers fast, convenient and seamless online access to specific content for medical researchers and scientists. The flexibility of the Program makes it truly unique. The eBook Collection Program can be purchased as a complete collection as well as a customized collection, composed of individual book titles chosen by the buyer.

Your Benefits:

- DRM-free content
- Easy access via IP address or User ID and password
- Unlimited simultaneous access
- COUNTER-compliant statistics on request
- MARC 21 and KBART records Available

More information:
[karger.com/
Collections/ebook](https://www.karger.com/Collections/ebook)

Karger's Online Collections are designed to meet the diverse needs and requirements of institutional customers ranging from academic and hospital libraries to pharmaceutical and other research centers and industries. The options are virtually unlimited: customers can access the complete content at attractive conditions or compile customized collections in various formats according to individual budgets and fields of interest.

Existing collections: karger.com/collections-overview

Further suggestions/tailored quote: collection@karger.com

RESEARCH

Karger

eBook Collection

Karger's eBook Collection 1997–2022

At least 872 titles from 1997–2022 at an attractive flat fee:
CHF 33,400 / EUR 29,000 / USD 35,300

Evidence-based acquisition (EBA)

As an alternative an evidence-based acquisition (EBA) is also available for the eBook Collection Program.

For more details visit our website or contact us at collection@karger.com.

More information:
[karger.com/
Collections/ebook](https://karger.com/Collections/ebook)